CONTENTS OF VOLUME 66

JANUARY 1953. NUMBER 1

Gastrointestinal Hemorrhage from Benign Tumors of the Duodenum. John D. Briggs, M.D., and John F. Roberts, M.D., Los Angeles .................. 10

Subacute and Chronic Osteomyelitis: Treatment with Use of Chemotherapeutic Agents, Antibiotics, and Primary Closure; Follow-up Report. Frank D. Dickson, M.D.; Rex L. Diveley, M.D., and Richard H. Kiene, M.D., Kansas City, Mo. .................. 60

New Concept of Vesical Intermittent Catheterization after Abdominoperineal Proctosigmoidectomy. Lowrain E. McCrea, M.D., and Donald L. Kimmel, Ph.D., Philadelphia .................. 84

Relationship Between Benign Breast Disease and Cancer. Edward F. Lewison, M.D., Baltimore, and John G. Lyons Jr., M.D., Hartford, Conn. .................. 94

Midthigh Amputations for Arteriosclerotic and Diabetic Gangrene: Analysis of One Hundred Thirty Three Consecutive Amputations in One Hundred Eight Patients, 1939 to 1952. Louis Carp, M.D., New York .................. 115

Case Reports:

FEBRUARY 1953. NUMBER 2

Treatment of Neurogenic Urinary and Fecal Incontinence in Children. Robert E. Gross, M.D.; George W. Holcomb Jr., M.D., and Henry Swan, M.D., Boston .................. 143